Advice & Support

- Counselling
  - Individual talks
  - Support given in contacts with other authorities
  - Combined support relating to mental health and/or addiction issues
  - Parental support
  - Gullvivan – Children’s support group

- Economy and living
  - You may claim income support to help you get through an emergency situation or in the longer term.
  - Sheltered accommodation is available for those who need it.

Contacting us is completely free of charge and everyone working in the social services sector is bound by a duty of confidentiality.

However, we are subject to compulsory notification under the Social Services Act (SoL), which among other things means that we are legally obliged to report when a child appears to be in distress.

You are welcome to contact us!
